CHRISTMAS spirit will be spread in Towcester this weekend with carol singing at the Tove Valley Baptist Fellowship.

Starting at 4pm on Sunday at Chapman Close, a group from the church will be circulating The Shires estate, singing songs of praise and spreading the real meaning of Christmas.

Talking about the event, group organiser Pete Chapman said: "It's something we have done on The Shires before and the community there made us feel so welcome, we would like to go back and celebrate and share season's greetings with them again."

On Thursday, December 17 high street shop owners will be encouraging shoppers to the town by extending their opening hours and holding The Christmas Fair.

The fair will be ideal for last minute gift ideas and an opportunity to get in the festive spirit with an open-air carol service from 6.30pm.
